It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

And whereas, the board of chosen freeholders of the county of Morris, at a special meeting of said board, held at Morristown, on the seventh day of January, eighteen-hundred and sixty-four, deemed it necessary and proper to make an effort to fill the deficiencies of said quotas by volunteers, and to pay a bounty of three hundred and fifty dollars to every volunteer who shall enlist for that purpose and be accepted and mustered into the military service of the United States; and whereas, it has been supposed that the said board has no power to borrow money for such purpose, nor to secure the same, nor to impose taxes for the reimbursement of moneys borrowed for that purpose, and said board has applied to be invested with such powers—therefore,

4. And be it enacted, That the tax to be annually assessed to pay the interest and principal of said bonds shall be apportioned by the said board of chosen freeholders at its annual meeting in every year, to and among the several townships of the said county of Morris, in proportion to the money which shall be furnished to each of said townships by said board, to pay bounties to volunteers to fill said quotas; and the sum so apportioned to each township shall be assessed, levied and collected, as other state, county and township taxes are or shall by law be assessed, levied and collected, and when collected shall be paid to the county collector of the county of Morris, for the purpose of paying the interest and principal of said bonds, pursuant to the provisions of this act; and the county collector of said county is hereby authorized and required to pay the interest and principal of said bonds according to the terms and conditions of said bonds.

Board may borrow money.

5. And be it enacted, That the said "The Board of Chosen Freeholders of the County of Morris," shall have power and authority to borrow on the faith and credit of said county, as a temporary loan, and for a period not to exceed five months, so much money as will be necessary to pay the interest on said bonds, which will become payable on the first day of October next, and to repay the money so borrowed from and out of the taxes authorized to be assessed and collected by this act.

CHAPTER CXCIV.

An Act to confirm a certain sale and conveyance made by Anna Maria Cogle, late of the county of Hunterdon, dated March seventeenth, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, John Fine and wife, of the township of Clinton, and county of Hunterdon, did by deed of bargain and sale dated the sixth day of February, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, grant and convey unto Anna Maria Woolverton, wife of Joseph B. Cogle, of the same place, and by and with his consent, five several lots or parcels of land and premises in said township for the consideration of nine thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars, subject to large incumbrances, which formed part of said consideration; and whereas, the said Anna Maria Cogle, by and with the consent of her said husband, did by deed dated March seventeenth, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, sell, grant and convey the said premises unto Daniel Kinney, of the county of Somerset, for the same consideration, and subject to the said incumbrances, which deed, although intended to pass to the said Daniel Kinney and his heirs, all the estate and interest therein, of the said Anna Maria Cogle, was not executed by the husband, Joseph B. Cogle, it being, by mistake, considered unnecessary that the said husband should join in the deed, as the property to be conveyed was the property of the wife, and purchased with her own money, subject to the incumbrances aforesaid in virtue of which deed the said Daniel Kinney entered into possession of the said premises and continued therein until his death in the month of May, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, having first made his last will and testament in which he devised the said premises unto his son Andrew K. Kinney, who is now in possession of the same as owner; and whereas, the said Anna Maria Cogle afterwards, in the fall of the year eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, died, leaving one child by her said husband and leaving a last will and testament made with his assent, giving to him and his heirs and assigns all her estate whatsoever, real and personal, which will has been duly proved and recorded in the surrogate's office of the county of Hunterdon; and whereas, it appears that the said Joseph B. Cogle, afterwards, on the fourth day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty, in confirmation of the title so conveyed or intended to be conveyed by the deed of the said Anna Maria Cogle, granted and conveyed to the said Andrew K. Kinney, all his right, title and interests in and to the said premises; and it appearing also that the whole of the purchase money has been paid and satisfied by the said Daniel Kinney and his estate, and by the said Andrew K. Kinney, save one mortgage for two thousand four hundred and seventy-seven dollars and eighty-five cents, ($2,477 85), which was at the time of the purchase aforesaid a lien on the property to secure the dower due to the widow of Peter Emery, a former owner of said property; and that the said Anna Maria Cogle, and her estate have received the full amount of the money paid by her on the said property; and that the sale and purchase were made by the parties in good faith, and in entire ignorance of any informality attending the same, and that it is just and right that the title of the said Andrew K. Kinney to the said premises should be confirmed—therefore,

1. BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of Deed legalized
the State of New Jersey, That the deed so made as aforesaid by the said Anna Maria Cogle, wife of the said Joseph B. Cogle, dated on the seventeenth day of March, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, and which was recorded on the eighth day of April, of the same year, in the office of the clerk of the county of Hunterdon, and afterwards confirmed by the deed of the said Joseph B. Cogle, shall be held and taken to have vested in the said Daniel Kinney, his heirs and assigns, all the estate, right and interest of the said Anna Maria Cogle in the said premises, in as full and ample a manner as they were then vested in her, and to have the same force and effect as if the said Joseph B. Cogle had joined in the said deed; provided always, this act shall not injuriously affect Proviso.
any rights or claims existing against the said lands and premises before and at the time of the execution of the said deed.

Approved March 17, 1864.

lot or lots in front of which the sidewalk and curb and gutter may require to be repaired or relaid; and if the same shall not be repaired within fifteen days from the date of said notice, then it shall be lawful for the councilmen, by resolution, to direct the commissioner of streets and roads to cause the same to be made; the costs and expenses for repairing and relaying, as aforesaid, shall be assessed by said councilmen upon the lands directly in front of which said repairs shall be made, except the crosswalks, which shall be assessed half-way to adjoining streets, roads or avenues, and shall remain a lien thereon, and shall be collected as prescribed by this act for the collection of assessments for improvements.

council over

NUMBER VI.

In relation to the Banks of the State of New Jersey.

WHEREAS, a law was passed by the last congress of the United States, authorizing the organization of banks in the several states and territories of the United States, which are likely to interfere with the banks organized under state authority, and greatly to reduce their business and lessen their earnings; and whereas, the secretary of the treasury, in his annual report to the present congress, recommended the passage of a law to impose a tax on the circulation of the state banks equal to two and two-fifths per cent., and about one-half per cent. upon their deposits, with the evident intention of obliging them either to suspend business, or to organize under the United States law; and whereas, the state banks of the state of New Jersey have proved themselves invaluable accessories to the development of the resources of the state, and faithful promoters of the prosperity of the people in every branch of industry, and contribute largely by annual taxes upon their capital towards the support of the municipal expenses of the counties and townships in which they are located, besides contributing upwards of forty thousand dollars, by a tax of one-half per cent. on the amount of their capital, to the school fund of the state, which is devoted for the support of public schools—therefore,

Members of congress requested to oppose a law to oppress banks

1. BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey, That the senators of this state in the congress of the United States be instructed, and the representatives of this state in the same body be and hereby are requested to use all honorable means in their power to prevent the passage of any law which shall have the effect to oppress the banks organized by state authority, or to impose upon them undue or burthensome taxes beyond their ability to pay, without destroying their usefulness or perilling their future existence, or to discriminate in imposing said taxes in favor of the banks organized under the "Act of Congress" to the injury of existing state banks.

Copies to be

2. And be it resolved, That the governor be requested to forward copies of these resolutions to the senators and representatives in congress from this state and to the secretary of the treasury.

April twenty-fourth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, an extended rebellion exists against the government of the United States, making it imperative that all the people of this state be vigilant to do all in their power to suppress and destroy the same; and whereas, from constantly accumulating evidence it is manifest that this rebellion has been deliberately planned, and is most insidious in its workings, and may even attempt to obtain strength by endeavors to obtain means, or men, or munitions, within the borders of New Jersey;

Citizens to be vigilant to de-

CHAS. S. OLDEN.

By the Governor,
W. S. JOHNSON, Secretary of State.

Proclamation by the Governor of New Jersey, April twenty-fourth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

A requisition having been made upon me by the president of the United States, for four regiments of militia to aid in repressing the extensive armed combination against the federal government now existing, and in sustaining the authority and dignity of the government, I have been enabled by the abundant offers of men and money, made to me by the people of the state, to respond promptly to the requisition, and have advised the federal authorities that the four regiments called for are ready for its acceptance, according to the terms of the requisition, and that two more can now be furnished promptly by the state if called for.

Four regiments ready and two more can be procured.

In consideration however of the possibility that other requisitions may be made upon me, and of the necessity of organizing immediately and thoroughly the militia of the state, of protecting our own borders from aggression, and of providing whatever money the exigencies of the future may require, and also, in order that the people of New Jersey may, through their constitutional representatives, take such measures as they may devise, to manifest their patriotic devotion to the federal government, and their determination to sustain it by all the means in their power,

I, Charles S. Olden, Governor of the State of New Jersey, in virtue of the power vested in me by the constitution, do convene the legislature of this state, hereby requiring the senators and members of the general assembly to assemble in their respective chambers at the state house in the city of Trenton, on Tuesday the thirtieth day of April, instant, at twelve o'clock, noon.

Legislature convened.

[L. S.] In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the state to be affixed, at Trenton, this twenty-fourth day of April in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and sixty one, and of the independence of the United States, the eighty-fifth.

Preamble. : WHEREAS, The four regiments called for from this state by the president's requisition have been completed, and are in the United States service; and whereas, other companies have been organized, and have volunteered their services to the governor, sufficient to form several additional regiments, which I have no authority to accept, as the president has made no further requisition, and I am not advised that any other will be made; and whereas, it is desirable that the militia of New Jersey, generally should be in a state of preparation for any exigency that may arise,

Recommendation that volunteer companies be formed

I do, therefore, recommend that all the volunteer companies now forming throughout the state, and all other persons of the proper age, disposed to do so, organize themselves as volunteer companies, according to the act of the legislature of eighteen hundred and sixty, as promptly as may be, so that there may be a large body of effective active militia in the state, ready for any call that may be made upon them; all volunteer companies thus organized will be armed by the state in accordance with the provisions of the aforesaid act, as soon as the proper arms can be obtained.

Proclamation by Charles S. Olden, Governor of the State of New Jersey, July eighth, eighteen hundred and sixty-two.

The President of the United States has called for three Call for three hundred thousand more volunteers for three years, or during hundred thou-the war. The necessity for holding the various points gained sand men made.

by our arms, the imperative demand of every interest of the nation, both domestic and foreign, that the war be speedily ended, the obligation we are under to sustain our fellow citizens now in the field and enable them soon to return to their homes, a proper regard to their safety, and that every battle may prove a victory, are some of the considerations which render the call for more troops eminently proper. I therefore hereby appeal to all the citizens of this state that they see to it, that New Jersey responds heartily and quickly to the call thus made upon it, to maintain the existence of the nation. The demand is not for every citizen to stand upon the field of battle, but it is, that every citizen, by such exertions and sacrifices and in such manner as is found most efficient, shall aid in filling the state's quota. The number of regiments assignable to New Jersey has not yet been made known to the state authorities, but to avoid delay and the sooner augment our force in the field, I now call for four regiments of infantry—one of such regiments to be raised in the counties of Burlington, Gloucester, Atlantic, Cape May, Camden, Salem and Cumberland; one of said regiments in the counties of Mercer, Middlesex, Monmouth, Ocean and Union; one of said regiments in the counties of Essex, Passaic, Bergen and Hudson; and the other of said regiments in the counties of Hunterdon, Warren, Sussex, Somerset and Morris; thus apportioning one regiment to each of the military divisions of the state.

Four regiments of infantry.

Camps to be established and pay of troops.

The field officers of each regiment will be appointed at an early day, and a camp will be established in each military division; in the mean time the process of gathering the men should progress. The regulations for the subsistence and transportation of troops will appear shortly in a general order. Each recruit is entitled to receive one month's pay, being thirteen dollars, in advance, when individually enlisted and sworn in, and a bounty of twenty-five dollars when the regiment is mustered into service. The family or dependent widowed mother of each private and non-commissioned officer is entitled to receive from the state six dollars per month, and each private and non-commissioned officer, having no family or dependent widowed mother, is entitled to receive from the state, on their honorable discharge, two dollars per month for the time they have served; and a bounty of seventy-five dollars is paid by the federal government to each volunteer on his honorable discharge. Any person furnishing a recruit will be entitled to receive two dollars on such recruit being mustered into service.

These are some of the inducements to enter the service ; Period of enlistment. but a patriotic devotion to the cause of their country is the motive that will be most influential with our people. The period of enlistment, which is for three years or during the war, will be rendered brief by all unitedly performing their high duty. While the waning ranks of the rebels are furnished by conscription, let it be our boast that we defend the nation by the heroic volunteer.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, }
TRENTON, September 18, 1862. }

Efforts should be made to increase the efficiency of the active militia.

The condition of the country renders it prudent that immediate efforts should be made to increase the efficiency of the active military force of the state, in order that in any sudden emergency the people may be protected. The uniform companies of the state have been regarded by our people as the nurseries of those gallant soldiers who have conferred honor upon New Jersey, by their steady bravery on the field of battle, and it is to those companies, organized and armed as they are under the authority of the state, that resort must now be had.

Commissioned officers recommended to recruit companies to maximum number

I therefore recommend the commissioned officers of the companies of the active militia of the state, to proceed immediately and with the utmost energy to recruit their respective companies to the maximum number of ninety-eight men each. These companies will proceed, in all cases where it is necessary, to elect the proper commissioned officers and non-commissioned officers, and will meet for drill at least twice in each week, and oftener if practicable. Both officers and men are enjoined to hold themselves in readiness to be called into active service whenever the exigencies of the state may require. The captains of the several companies will forward to the adjutant-general, on the first day of October next, muster rolls of their respective companies, containing the names of their officers and men.

The commander-in-chief earnestly calls upon the young men of the state, to enrol themselves in these uniformed companies, provide themselves with uniforms and perfect themselves in drill, in order that they may defend their homes if the state shall be invaded.

Proclamation by the Governor of New Jersey.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
TRENTON, September 23, 1862. }

The draft for four thousand men, ordered by the war department, to fill up the New Jersey regiments first in the field, having been postponed in order to give further opportunity to procure volunteers, I would earnestly urge upon the people of New Jersey, the importance of recruiting those regiments to their maximum number, and of thus relieving the state authorities from the necessity of resorting to a draft. These regiments have nobly maintained the honor of the state upon every battle-field, they have never been found wanting, whether required to endure unshaken the devastating storm of shot and shell, or the sterner trial of the bayonet; but their numbers are reduced by the casualties of war, and they now call upon their brethren at home to fill their ranks, and aid them to maintain untarnished their hard-won reputation.

Recruiting recommended.

In behalf of these brave men, still heroically contending with the enemies of our country, I call upon the people of the state to take active measures to fill up their regiments with scions of the same noble stock, and I feel confident that this appeal will be promptly answered.

Call to fill up regiments.

Jersey men! The state of Pennsylvania is invaded! A hostile army is now occupying and despoiling the towns of our sister state. She appeals to New Jersey, through her governor, to aid in driving back the invading army.

Let us respond to this call upon our patriotic state with unprecedented zeal.

I therefore call upon the citizens of this state to meet and organize into companies, and report to the adjutant general of the state as soon as possible, to be organized into regiments as the militia of New Jersey, and press forward to the assistance of Pennsylvania in this emergency.

The organization of these troops will be given in general orders as soon as practicable.

Preamble. WHEREAS, the necessity no longer exists for "the citizens of this state to meet and organize into companies and report to the adjutant general of the state as soon as possible, to be organized into regiments as the militia of New Jersey, and press forward to the assistance of Pennsylvania in this emergency," according to my proclamation of the seventeenth instant—

Troops to be honorably discharged and paid.

I therefore direct that the troops raised in accordance with the said proclamation be honorably discharged, and return to their respective places of enrollment to be mustered out, and paid for the service they have performed. The companies are requested to retain their present organization, as their services may be needed again at any moment.

All vouchers for necessary expenses incident to raising said troops, will be forwarded without delay to the proper staff officers for approval and payment.

The promptness with which the citizens of this state responded to the appeal of the governor of Pennsylvania for aid in repelling the threatened invasion of that state, deserves the commendation of all patriots and lovers of the Union.

Thanks are especially due the twenty-third and twenty-seventh regiments (returned volunteers), for having so promptly taken the field to resist the threatened invasion, without returning to their homes, from which they had so long been separated.

Every volunteer mustered into the United States service for three years, within thirty days, will cause an abatement pro tanto of New Jersey's quota of the draft, should one be ordered. If eight thousand seven hundred and eighty-three volunteers be raised in the state in thirty days there will be no draft. There will, in no event, be a draft for any alleged previous deficiency. The quota of each township and ward towards the eight thousand seven hundred and eighty-three men will be published as soon as possible by the adjutant general of the state, and each township and ward will receive credit for the number of men furnished.

No draft if volunteers be raised within thirty days.

New Jersey has thus far furnished all men asked of her without drafting, and it would be a source of pride and gratification should she continue to fill her quota of troops by volunteers.

There is now in process of formation in this state, under my direction, one regiment of volunteer cavalry at Trenton, two regiments of infantry at Newark and Flemington, respectively, and one battery of artillery at Hoboken. The formation of an infantry regiment will be immediately commenced at Freehold, and another at Beverly, and a battery will be authorized in a few days at Trenton. A special effort will also be made to enlist men for the old regiments. I earnestly call upon the citizens of this state to make every effort to raise these troops by the payment of additional bounties, through public meetings and personal exertion.

Regiments organizing and call on citizens to recruit

Let the authorities of the cities and townships determine to raise their quotas. By this means, in 1862, eleven thousand men were raised in fifteen days.

Bounties.

The bounties now paid by the government are one hundred dollars to new recruits, and four hundred dollars to veterans. Every single man will be entitled to two dollars per month from the state, and the families of married men and widowed mothers of single men dependent on them for support, to six dollars per month, besides the monthly pay from the government. If, in addition, liberal bounties are paid by municipalities and by individuals, the men can be raised.

Let every citizen of New Jersey commence the work at once and the desired result will be attained.

Do not wait for the quota of the townships, which will be furnished in a very few days.

Given under my hand and privy seal, at Trenton, this [L. S.] twenty-seventh day of July, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

A Proclamation by the Governor of New Jersey, July twenty-eighth, eighteen hundred and sixty-three.

Right to give thanks.

It is right publicly to give thanks to Almighty God, for the victories recently vouchsafed to the armies of the United States; and in the midst of thanksgiving to remember in prayer, those who have been bereaved through the casualties of war.

Duties of a Christian people

It is right for a Christian people to invoke the Holy Spirit to change the hearts of their enemies, and also to guide with wisdom the counsels of their own government, to the end that the Union of the States may be maintained, the Constitution preserved, and peace and prosperity speedily established;

Day of thanksgiving.

Therefore, I recommend that the people of the state of New Jersey observe by thanksgiving and prayer, in their usual places of public worship, the day designated for that purpose by the President of the United States, to wit: Thursday, the sixth day of August, eighteen hundred and sixty-three.

Given under my hand and privy seal, at Trenton,

A Proclamation by the Governor, October twenty-second, eighteen hundred and sixty-three.

The president of the United States has issued a proclamation calling upon the governors of the different states to raise and have enlisted into the United States service their respective quotas of three hundred thousand men, to serve for a term not exceeding three years. The president has also proclaimed that, if any state shall fail to raise the quota assigned to it by the war department, a draft for the deficiency will be made, commencing on the fifth day of January, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and sixty-four. The quota of the state of New Jersey under said call has been assigned as nine thousand, four hundred and forty one. The quota of each township and ward will be speedily published by the adjutant general. Credits for volunteers on said quota will be given to the respective townships and wards until the fourth day of January, eighteen hundred and sixty-four.

Three hundred thousand men called for

Quota 9,441.

No draft will be made for the deficiency of the eight thousand seven hundred and eighty-three men assigned to this state in July last, (and to fill which I called for volunteers, by proclamation dated July twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and sixty-three,) before the fifth day of January, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, and credits for volunteers on that call will also be given to the several townships and wards where deficiencies exist in their respective quotas, heretofore published by the adjutant general of the state, until the fourth day of January eighteen hundred and sixty-four. Therefore, the draft announced by the president to commence (in case of failure to furnish volunteers,) on the fifth day of January next, will be for the entire deficiency of any township or ward.

No draft.

Call upon citizens to raise troops.

I earnestly call upon all citizens of this state to use every effort to raise these troops. The time for work is short, but if the people of New Jersey, who have never faltered in the discharge of duty, will, unitedly, and in the proper spirit, at once enter upon it, with the determination not to fail, they will succeed.

Our armies should be largely reinforced. A crushing blow at the armed power of the rebellion, if followed by wise, just and conciliatory counsels, will open the door to that peace which we so much desire, and which has thus far eluded us.

The people, amidst many discouraging circumstances, nobly responded to my former call for volunteers. Whatever may be the result of this appeal, the events of the past few months have reflected additional honor on our beloved state. I have confidence that the people will again respond and fill with volunteers not only our quota of the new call, but also the small existing deficiency.

Approval of former action.

I here repeat the request formerly made to the citizens of this state, to aid the raising of men by the bestowment of bounties, either individually or through the municipal authorities. It is true that a response to this request involves the expenditure of large sums of money, but every man must expect that a war of such magnitude as that in which we are engaged, to be ended speedily, requires pecuniary sacrifice. If war is to be prosecuted, it is economy to bring into the field a large preponderance of power, rather than feed its insatiate appetite by piecemeal. We should be prepared to make great sacrifices, if, by so doing, we can save the Union.

The general government offers largely increased bounties, of which the details will be announced by the adjutant general of the state.

Given under my hand and privy seal, at Trenton, this [L. s.] twenty-second day of October, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

A Proclamation by the Governor of New Jersey, November seventh, eighteen hundred and sixty-three.

God, who notices even the falling of a sparrow, also rules in the affairs of nations. To His mercy we are indebted for the many blessings which continually surround us as individuals and as a people. Public acknowledgment of His providence should frequently be made by thanksgiving, praise and prayer.

Acknowledgment of God's providence.

Moved by these considerations, I, Joel Parker, governor of the state of New Jersey, do hereby, in accordance with the custom in this state, recommend to the people the last Thursday of November, anno domini eighteen hundred and sixty-three, as a day for public thanksgiving and prayer to Almighty God.

Day of thanksgiving.

Let us thank God for abundant harvests ;

Let us thank Him for preserving us from pestilence ;

Duties enjoined.

Let us thank Him that order has been maintained, and the laws respected and obeyed within our borders ;

Let us thank Him for victories achieved by the armies of the nation ;

Let us thank Him for the manifold mercies and blessings He has freely bestowed upon us ; for life and health ; for Christian institutions and privileges ; for his revealed Word ; and especially for the gift of His Son, the Saviour of the World, who continually maketh intercession for us.

While we offer thanks, let us also pray that God will give us hearts to pity and relieve the poor ; that He will give consolation to the widow and orphan, who sorrow for the heroic dead ; that He will preserve in safety our brave soldiers in the field ; that He will soon remove the rod of our chastisement ; that He will give wisdom to those in authority ; that He will change the hearts of our enemies, and so order events that peace may be speedily restored, and the now discordant sections of the nation be again united.

Given under my hand and privy seal, at Trenton, this [L. s.] seventh day of November, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three.

Proclamation by the Governor, February tenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four.

Quota 16,750. The quota of New Jersey, under the late call of the president for five hundred thousand men, is sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty-nine. Upon this quota will be credited and deducted all volunteers from this state who have been mustered into the United States' service, since the first day of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, and also all who shall be so mustered, prior to the first day of March, eighteen hundred and sixty-four. More than ten thousand (10,000) men have been already recruited on account of this quota.

What sub-districts not liable to draft.

The sub-districts that have raised the quotas assigned them in the General Orders issued from the office of the adjutant-general of this state, under my proclamations of the twenty-seventh day of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, and the twenty-second day of October, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, are not liable to the draft ordered to be made on the tenth day of March next.

Deficiency to be announced.

By referring to previous publications of quotas, the deficiency of the various sub-districts not yet exempt will be very nearly ascertained. The adjutant-general will announce the exact deficiency as soon as possible.

Bounties.

The government bounty of three hundred dollars, for new recruits, and four hundred dollars for veterans, will not be paid after the expiration of the present month.

I earnestly call upon the people of those townships and wards where deficiencies exist, to devote all their energies to filling their respective quotas, before the large government bounties now offered are withdrawn.

Believing that the people of New Jersey desired to avoid a draft, I have labored to give them the opportunity to furnish volunteers. The greater part of the state is already exempt. There is yet time for each township and ward to fill its entire quota, if the people will be earnest in the effort. The advantages of such action, especially to the laboring classes, have been more than once presented. I can add but little to the appeals already made, I leave the subject with the people, in confidence that their response will be such as will gladden the heart of every Jerseyman.

A Proclamation by the Governor of New Jersey. March twenty-third, eighteen hundred and sixty-four.

The president of the United States, in general orders, number one hundred, has made an additional call for two hundred thousand men for the army, navy and marine corps of the United States. The quota of the state of New Jersey under said call, by an assignment of the war department this day furnished me, is six thousand seven hundred and four. The adjutant general of this state will, as soon as possible, publish the exact quotas of sub-districts, which will be about two-fifths of those published in general order, number one, from the office of the adjutant general of this state, dated February twentieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four.

Additional call for two hundred thousand men.

Quota 6,704.

The president announces that an account will be taken of credits and deficiencies of former quotas, and that unless the quotas on this call and the deficiency on former quotas is filled by voluntary enlistments, by the 15th of April next, a draft will be commenced as soon after that day as practicable.

Accounts of credits and deficiencies taken.

On and after April first, eighteen hundred and sixty-four, only one hundred dollars government bounty will be paid.

Given under my hand and privy seal, at Trenton, this

Proclamation by the Governor of the State of New Jersey,
May sixteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four.

Call for militia     The president of the United States desires me to raise immediately all the militia force I can, upon the following terms :

Term of service.

1. The term of service to be one hundred days (reckoning from the date of muster into the United States service), unless sooner discharged.

Troops to be infantry.

2. The troops to be infantry exclusively ; to be organized according to the present regulations of the war department, and to be mustered into the United States service by regiments, the whole number to be furnished within fifteen days from this date.

How armed, &c.

3. The troops to be clothed, armed, equipped, subsisted, transported and paid as other United States infantry volunteers, and to serve in fortifications or wherever their services may be required, within or without the state.

No bounty.

4. No bounty to be paid the troops, nor the services to be charged or credited upon any draft. Any person in this special service who shall be drafted will receive credit for the service rendered.

Jerseymen, your brothers in the field have nobly sustained the honor of our state in the recent sanguinary battles. You have commended their valor and rejoiced over their victories ; but they need something more than words of praise. Will you not for a brief period deny yourselves the comforts of home, and, by temporary service, enable them to achieve further victories ? Prompt action is necessary, as it is desired to forward at least five regiments as soon as possible. The services of existing regiments or companies of the active militia will be accepted, and authority will be given to raise new companies upon application through the office of the adjutant general of the state.

Proclamation by the Governor, July twelfth, eighteen hundred and sixty-four.

I have been expecting a call from the president of the United States, or a request from the governor of the state now invaded by the rebels for troops, to aid in driving back the invaders. Not having received such call or request, I assume that the authorities near the scene of action believe that they have sufficient force at their command to meet the emergency. I, however view the expedition as more serious than an ordinary raid. A battle has been fought within a few miles of Baltimore, and our forces (composed in part of veteran troops) have been driven back. Intelligence has been received that the railway between Philadelphia and Baltimore has been cut, and communication between the east and Washington interrupted. The National Capital is seriously threatened.

Although New Jersey has not been officially called upon for troops in this emergency, yet regarding the danger as imminent, I call upon the citizens of this state to organize immediately into companies and report to the adjutant general of the state for thirty days service in Pennsylvania, Maryland or the District of Columbia.

Given under my hand and privy seal at Trenton, this [L. s.] twelfth day of July, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and sixty-four.
